 Gretchen Buxton - Instrument masks, allowing us to play all year

To the administration, teachers, staff, & families for your flexibility and support of music in our school, even & especially during this confusing year.

To families for supporting home practice time and encouraging students through their musical interests.

Concert Etiquette

As a courtesy to the performers who have worked so hard, and other concert guests, please deactivate the sound on all cell phones and other electronics before the performance.

Also, please refrain from visiting or moving during the performance. If it is necessary for you to move, please do so in between numbers.

Thank you and enjoy the concert!
